Broadcloth Takes Manhattan Handlean in Sensational Finish-Consucio II., at Long Odds, Beats Druid-Three Favorites Successful at Westchester Track.

In spite of the cold weather, 12,000 persons saw some excellent racing at Morris Park yesterday, three favorites winning. John Drake's Rapid Water, tremendously backed and closing an equal favorite with R. T. on Jr.'s, Dolly Spanker, at 11 to 10, defeated the latter with consumanate ease in Dixiana Stakes, for three-year-olds, at a mile. Dolly Spanker gave fourteen pounds to the Drake colt, which proved to be too great a task. Dolly Spanker made the pace and held the lead until the middle of the stretch was reached, when he tired and Rapid Water, who had been the runner up, came on and wor by three lengths in 1:30%. Wotan was three lengths behind Dolly Spanker.
The finish of the Manhattan Handicap, for two-year-olds and upward, Eclipse course caused no end of excitement. A ton of money made J. W. Colt's Castalian a 3 to 2 favorite, with S. S. Brown's two-year-old Broadcloth a hot second choice. Race King, backed down to 60 to 1, was leading by a small margin at the final sixteenth pole when Crimmins here in with Broadcloth and clearly bumped Castalian, with Burns up. The latter was crowded into Race King, the trio rushing toward the judges closely bunched. Broad-cloth got the verdict by three parts of a length, with Race King beating Castalian a head. The crowd was sure that Burns would claim a foul against the winner, but he did nothing of the kind. Burns is under regular contract to Capt. Brown, while James McLaughlin. the trainer of Race King, is his father-in-law with whom the jockey is not on speaking terms. Those who bet on Castalian thought these were reasons for Burns's failure to go before the stewards. Sidney C. Love, hammered down to 7 to 10, e first race, at a mile, by a length in He caught Thistle Heather, 5 to 2, at the last furlong pole, the latter beating Homestead, 10 to 1, by three parts of a length. Candida. 4 to 1, took the third race, a handi-rap for two-year-olds, Eclipse course, in a smashing drive by a head from Waterlight. who was not ridden energetically enough by Burns to suit his backers. E. R. Thomas's Flyback, 8 to 1, was third, two lengths back, beating Austin Allen in the final strides by three parts of a length. sydney Paget's Jerry C., 3 to 1 favorite, did not get away any too well, and was beaten off. time was 1:11.

Fred Calhoun's smart filly, Consuelo II., backed down to tens, proved a big surprise in the fifth event, for two-year-olds, at six furlongs. Withers course, when she won in a galop by six lengths, defeating S. S. Brown's bruid, 0 to 10 favorite. The latter was a length and a half better than Monacodor, 6 to 5, who beat Hildebrand a head. John E. McDonald's Tarpon made the running for more than half a mile, but was short. The ime was 1:13½.

A poor lot of maiden fillies faced the starter

e last race, at seven furlongs, Withers course. Black Socks, 9 to 5 favorite, staggered home the winner by three parts of a length, with Arietta, 10 to 1, who made the ik of the pace, finishing second, two lengths before Step Away, a 50 to I shot, who closed with a great rush and beat Spes a head. WOMEN'S AND MEN'S GOLFING. Annual Intercity Team Matches on the Wissahicken Links.

Barring the narrow escape from defeat of Findlay Douglas by Whitlatch, the Westfield crack, who holds the championship of the Central Jersey League, the sifting out rounds yesterday at the Nassau Country Club golf tournament were as placid as a millpond. Douglas and Whitlatch were out in 46

C. F. Watson, Sr., continued in the form he showed at the Essex tournament, beating Nesmith of Flushing and Howard Maxwell in good golf. He was using a driver presented to him by Travis and never drove so well. The greens were ideal, better than any seen at a tournament this year, and all hands were running down their puts in clockwork style.

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

SYSONBY, OISEAU AND TRADITION MAY COME TOGETHER.

Match Race to Be Arranged for a Week From Te-day-Drake Wins Heavily on Rapid Water-Fred Calboun Cleans Up With Consuelo II .- Layers in Trouble.

Indications point to a three cornered match race to be run a week from to-day at Morris Park for the two-year-old championship, prospective starters being James Keene's Sysonby, Sydney Paget's Tradition and J. G. Greener's Oiseau. It was stated yesterday that Mr. Paget and Mr. Greener both willing to start their champions providing the distance is seven furlongs. but Mr. Greener first desires to consult his trainer, Carroll B. Reid, who is in the West but will be here to-morrow. Mr. Keene thinks the distance should be not more than six furlongs. He has kept Sysonby in training for just such an event, even though the Melton colt has no stake engagements at Morris Park. If the three youngsters come together they will carry stake weight, the conditions calling for a subscription of $1,000 each, with $5,000 to be added by the West Racing Association. The race would be an extra attraction on the closing day

"The right money is on Rapid Water!" was the cry throughout the betting ring at Westchester yesterday just before the running of the Dixiana Stakes. In the paddock John A. Drake, the owner of Rapid Water, said that he had sent a "small wager" on the colt to the books, but in the ring Otto Townsend, who usually bets for Newton Bennington, had gone the rounds betting $500 and $1,000 at a clip, getting 6 to 5 for the greater part of a $10,000 commission. Bennington was not at the track, but O'Neill, his orack jockey, who also rides regularly for Drake, had the leg up on Rapid Water. It was soon whispered that Townsend did not bet a dollar for Bennington, but handled the Drake commission with the idea of throwing the layers off the scent. Rapid Water was the heaviest backed winner of the day and all of the books were hit, although the volume of clubhouse money that was bet on Dolly Spanker in the same race served to offset the losses on the Drake colt. Dave Johnson was also a heavy winner on Rapid Water. He loaded the money on wherever he could and finally caught the Humming Bird for a $1,000 bet at 6 to 5. F. S. Calhoun, the owner of Consuelo II., trained by Pittsburg Phil's brother, went home satisfied with life. He wagered $500 all three ways on his fast filly, getting $100 on straight at 15 to 1 and $400 on at 12 to 1. He secured 5 to 1 a place and 5 to 2 to show, and won close to $10,000 when Consuelo came

It was said in the ring toward the close of day that three more layers, members of the "Mets," had thrown up the sponge, heavily in debt. The game has been extremely hard for them lately, especially from the playing Membership buttons can be secured now dead cheap, it is reported. There was a mix-up at the post in the first race that caused much unpleasant comment Starter Cassidy threw the barrier and the whole field went off with a rush except Hoodwink, who caught the webbing in her mouth The man with the advance flag, for some unknown reason, thought that it was no start and signalled to the jockeys to pull up. Some of the horses ran nearly half a mile before they could be stopped. When the field was sent away again, after a delay of five minutes, there was no faultfinding, especially as the favorite, Sidney C. Love, heavily played by Joe Yeager, got the money. In previous races little Race King showed so much soreness that turfmen said it was sheer cruelty to let him start. But in the Manhattan Handicap yesterday a trans-formation took place. The cost opened at 100 to 1 and was played across the board until he dropped to 60, and then ran a race that showed a wonderful change in form. He came so near winning that the bookmakers had heart disease. O'Neill rode two winners. Willie Davis's mother was a visitor at the track to see her son ride for the first time. But the best Willie could do was to finish second with Thistle Heather, in the first race.

Previous winners of the Dixlana were Briar Sweet, Ethelbert, Gonfalon, Water-color, Oom Paul and Bad News, Rapid

Water hung up a new record for the race. Because he won the Manhattan Handicap repeat in yesterday's event. The other winners of this race were Sanders, Fire-

TO-DAY'S MORRIS PARK CARD Municipal and Nursery Handleaps Are the Star Events.

The Westchester Racing Association has prepared an unusually attractive card for Morris Park this afternoon. The Municipal Handicap, at a mile and three-quarters over the hill, is a feature, with Caughnawaga picking up top weight. Shorthose, on his last race, looks formidable with 119 pounds, but Ostrich, with 95, has a good chance to be a factor. Glorifler will probably be well played factor. Gloriner will probably be well played to win the Nursery Handicap, for two-year-old, Eclipse course, with Burnt Hills, Belle Strome and Dandelion dangerous. In the October Steeplechase Lavator, St. Jude and the Chamblet entry. Royelle and Zinziber, may go well, while in the first event, at seven furlongs, Withers course, James R. Keene's Irsraelite will doubtless be the favorite over Sir Brillar, Memories and Heart's Desire. Two-year-olds will run in the fourth race, at five and one-half furlongs, Eclipse course, Consuelo II., Thirty Third, Bank and The Claimant appearing to be the best. Can-teen, Ascetic, Champlain, Hatchet and Pronta all figure well in the last race, at a mile. The entries are as follows:

Schoolmaster......104 Cooley and Butler Fight a Six Round Draw A good card was put on at the Broadway .. Philadelphia, on Thursday night, and a large crowd turned out to see the contests. a large crowd turned out to see the contests. The main bout, of six rounds, was between Fred Cooley of Chicago and Jack Butler of Brooklyn. At the start Cooley jabbed Butler and had the latter swinging wildly. Butler was trying to land a right swing, one of his best blows, but failed because his opponent shifted his head from one side to the other. Cooley, however, kept on scoring and had his man weary. In the fourth they mixed it up viciously. First one and then the other would reach the jaw, and it was only a question of endurance. Butler was exceptionally strong, but Cooley was more scientific. At the end there was little to choose between the men, and had there been a decision the verdict would certainly have been a draw.

FAVORITES WIN AT LEXINGTON. Lisonjero Takes Historie Johnston Stake in Straight Heats.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 7 .- The Johnston Stake. naugurated as far back at 1887, was the feature of the racing this afternoon at the grounds of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association. The event fell to Lisonjero. who won the event in straight heats without reducing his Buffalo mark of 2:08%. of the other races the favorites also won, but the talent lost heavily in the 2:11 trot, in which Jim Ferry was regarded as a good thing. He was handily beaten by Patchen Maid, which mare sold last night for 10 in 330 tickets. The 2:04 pece was a very hot contest be tween John M. and Nathan Strauss. The but the Smathers gelding best him in the next two heats, both being paced in 2:06.

Fully 5,000 persons witnessed the racing. the track being a spring board and the weather delightful. Anderson, driver of Newton S. was thrown from the sulky in the first heat of the 2:11 trot and fourteen horses passed over the reinsman, who had a most marvellous escape from injury. Without the guiding hand of a driver, Newton S, led the big field entirely around the track and reached the wire in front.

GAME OF NEAR-BASEBALL. McGrawites Win From Old-Timers by a

There was a game of near-baseball at the Polo Grounds yesterday, and some 503 ersons, suffering from acute mania in the baseball line, sat for nearly two hours and roze, while the team that won the National Bostons Tie. eague pennant in 1889 and the present cham-The Pittsburgs won from Chicago yester-day in the National League, and the Phila-delphias and Bostons played a tie game. The pions played humorous pranks on one another in the diamond. The final score was 10 to 8 in favor of the present New Yorks. The McGrawites generally did not try very hard. Jim O'Rourke and George Gore made Philadelphia, 2; Boston, 2. home runs that would not have been singles STANDING OF THE CLUBS. if the fielders had gone after them. The team of '89 went to the bat as follows: Jim O'Rourke, catcher: Roger Connor, first base; Hatfield, short stop: "Silent Mike" Tiernan, second base; Whitney, third base: Dan Brouthers, left field; Hornung, right field; George Gore, centre field, and "Smiling Mickey" second base; Whitney, third base; Dan Brouthers, left field; Hornung, right field; George Gore, centre field, and "Smiling Mickey" Welch, pitcher.

The old-timers did not score until the sixth inning. In the interval Dan Brouthers made two consecutive singles and was heartly applauded. Roger Connor took advantage of Ames's lobbing the ball up to smish it for two bases. In the sixth inning Wiltse deliberately dropped Witney's long fly, and Hornung tapped one toward Donlin, which he let roll to see if it could not be stretched into a home run. Whitney scored. In the seventh Mertes went in to pitch, and the old ones made three more runs. Jim O'Rourke hit one to Dunn and he did not field it until Jim had completed the circuit.

Donlin surprised Brouthers by turning away from his long fly and catching it with one hand behind his back. Gore got a run in the eighth, after he had made a real two-bagger, and Luther Taylor, who had relieved Welch in the sixth inning, flied out to Dunn. Two errors in the ninth put Brouthers and Hornung on the bags. An imitation home run by Gore brought in three runs.

In the fifth inning Emslie called the game, but the crowd didn't intend to be deprived of the least bit of the buffoonery, and the fourteen men who sat in the front row of the bleachers, making a noise something like a stage army, demanded that the game go the limit so insistently that the umpire changed his decision. The old-timers took the full count. AT PITTEBURG. NATIONAL LEAGUE.

NEW YORKS WIN AND LEAD.

NEW YORK (A. L.), 3; BOSTON (A. L.), 2. Playing with more determination, more nerve and more dash than the Bostons, the New Yorks yesterday conquered the world's champions at American League Park. The score was 3 to 2, and while there have been better played games from the purely technical scientific standpoint, this one riveted interest from first to last because always close and uncertain. The chilly air and the tension produced some raggedness of play on the field, but had no effect on the excitement of the occasion. Enthusiasm was at high pitch and rooting hard and continuous. Many Boston partisans were on hand, but NEW YORK (A. L.), 3; BOSTON (A. L.), 2.

ment of the occasion. Enthusiasm was at high pitch and rooting hard and continuous. Many Boston partisans were on hand, but the New York rooters outdid them in noise and exuberance, largely because the home team gave its supporters more opportunity to enthuse.

"I still think Boston will win in a walk," said a Bostonian, after the game, with all the assurance common to his town. "Collins's, men didn't show their true form today,"

"Neither did New York," was the laconic reply of a Manhattanite.

The New Yorks played the faster ball from the moment the prince of all twirlers, Jack Chesbro, sent his first curve whizzing over the pan until the finish. They were more wide awake, even if they did not reach town until noon and did not have time to dig up their home uniforms. They took more chances on the bases and moved faster. They had all the ginger of the game.

The batting of Dougherty, Williams and Anderson accounted for the scoring of the New Yorks, and the splendid pitching of Chesbro accounted for the scarcity of Boston runs. His team mates aided Chesbro by giving him good support at critical times, though the brawny boxman was on his mettle most at those times. He was cool, resourceful—a master of his craft. Gibson of Boston was just as hard to hit, but not as steady as Chesbro. He fielded his position beautifully. Chesbro brought his "spit ball" into play, and it worked havog with the Pilgrims.

The first man to reach first was Collins, into play, and it worked havoe with the Pilgrims.

The first man to reach first was Collins, in the second inning. A base on balls sent him down. Freeman's out at first put him on second, but he was squelched by a shrewd play of Elberfeld's. Ferris grounded to short and Elberfeld shot the ball to Conroy, who touched Collins out, much to the latter's surprise. Anderson made the first hit of the game in the second inning, but was forced by Ganzel. Even then the New Yorks filled up the bases, but two batters were unable to send the ball beyond the infield.

Selbach trotted around for Boston in the third. There were two out when he hit safely over second. A passed ball put him on second, and he came home on Parent's fly to centre, which anderson made a good try for.

on second, and he came home on Parent's fly to centre, which Anderson made a good try for.

The New Yorks scored in the same inning. A pitched ball hit Elberfeld and accounted for the first fourth of his journey. As he started to steal, Anderson lunged at the balls. A two bagger to left was the result, and Elberfeld hotfooted to the plate. A swift double play cut the Bostons down in the fourth. Dougherty's fly to left in the fifth was a two bagger because Selbach, Parent and Stahl got mixed up as to which should takeit. Willie Keeler bunted and hurried Collins into a wide throw. Elberfeld's fly to Freeman brought Dougherty home.

A fumble and wild throw by Williams put Stahl on second in the sixth, with nobody out, but the next three hitters were easy. Dougherty bunted safely in the seventh, scurried to second on a passed ball and scampered to the plate on Williams's clean rap between Parent and Collins. The Bostons scored once in the eighth on a force by Parent, Stahl's stinger to left and Elberfeld's juggling of Freeman's sharp grounder. Chesbro, Kleinow and Conroy threw out the Boston side in order in the ninth. The grand stand occupants then swarmed on the field him to the clubhouse. The score:

IN THE FOOTBALL WORLD. Schedule of Games for To-day-Practice of the Elevens.

The football schedule for to-day is an extensive one. Elevens all over the country will be in action. The schedule follows:

Harvard vs. Maine, at Cambridge. Yale vs. Pennsylvania State, at New Haven. Princeton vs. Washington and Jefferson, a

Columbia vs. Williams, at New York Pennsylvania vs. Lehigh, at Philadelphia. Cornell vs. Hamilton, at Ithaca. Annapolis vs. Virginia Military Institute, at Lafayette vs. Gallaudet, at Paston

Indians vs. Bucknell, at Williamsport. West Point vs. Dickinson, at West Point. Syracuse vs. Colgate, at Syracuse. Michigan vs. Kalamazoo, at Ann Arbor. Chicago vs. Purdue, at Chicago. Union vs. Rochester, at Schenectady. University of Buffalo vs. Colgate, at Buffalo. Illinois vs. Washington University, at St. Louis. Wisconsin vs. Marquette, at Madison. Harvard, '08, vs. St. Marks, at Southboro. Fordham vs. N. Y. U., at Ohio Field.

Columbia will have a changed line-up in the game with Williams this afternoon at American League Park. Buell will drop his place at right half back and will go to right end, where he was all last fall. Either O'Loughlin or Frambach will start the game at right half back, while Duell, Helmrich and Townsend can be used in the other half back position. For ends Morlay has Buell and Muir at one end and Griswold and Post at the other. The appearance of Duden as centre vesterday gives Morley a substitute for Finuegan in case the latter s hurt. Johnson, from Case School, Kruger of the sophomore eleven and Stiefel, a substitute guard last fall, were new men who Wolff, left end in 1900, helped Morley in coaching. Williams always has been a tough proposition for Columbia. The Blue and White has tackled the players from Massachusetts twice in the last two years and has won by a score of 5 to 0 in each case. Practice yesterday was light, the main work being a formation to protect the full backs on kicks and also to teach the 'varsity how to break through and block punts.

CAMBRIDGE, Oct. 7 .- The Harvard 'varsity and second elevens played a tie game in their scrimmage this afternoon, each side getting 11 points. Reggie Brown, coach of the second eleven, scored a touchdown on a 93-yard run from a fake kick. Wendell, the freshman who has been at right half back on the 'varsity eleven for two days, scored on a 50-yard run through the right side of the second line. Wendell will begin the game at right half to-morrow in the absence of Capt. Hurley, who has not yet recovered sufficiently to e on the field. The 'varsity made its other touchdown by line bucking. Barney, a 200bound freshman from the Roxbury Latin School, played at centre in the second eleven. and put it all over White, who played op posite him. Hugh Kernan did the 'varsity's punting and got off two sixty yarders. A number of men who have been on the cripples' squad were out in togs again to-day mong them being Brill, Oveson, Hanley Parker, Nichols, Reynolds, Wilder, Foster

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 7 .- Mike Murphy got after Kineon, left tackle on the 'varsity eleven, this afternoon, for trying to dig a hole with his stiff leather finger shield in Stewart's face. It was the first sample of nasty football on the Yale field this season. The college backs had pounded Kineon hard, and the coaches had turned their attention to Kineon to brace him up. It nettled him, and he made a jab into Stewart's face, cutting a deep gash. Murphy stopped the play long enough to tell Kineon that he would not play football at Yale any more if he repeated the action. Then all the coaches and Capt. Hogan expressed their opinion of such play. Yale in the game with Penn State to-morrow will introduce a new formation for receiving the kick off. The centre is dropped back into the place usually occupied by the quarter back, while the quarter takes his position in the front centre of the line. The coaches this afternoon drilled the men in forming a running interference to guard the man carrying the ball. this afternoon, for trying to dig a hole with Princeton, N. J., Oct. 7.—The Tigers had light practice this afternoon. Stannard, the big tackle, was out on the field again, and while he did not get in to-day's scrimmage he will be in to-morrow's line-up. The scrub made a touchdown, and seemed to have things a good deal their own way to-day. Wailer was at left guard in place of Dutcher, but this arrangement was probably only temporary. A change which is apt to prove more lasting, however, is the appearance of Hamill at left half in place of King. King, it would seem, is a bit too light. Hamill, who is a freshman from Exeter, has speed and considerably more weight than King.

more weight than King.

Easton, Pa., Oct. 7.— Lajzyette is ready for the deaf mute team from Gallaudet to-morrow, and a stiff game is looked for. Chief interest, however, centres in Latayette's preparedness to meet Princeton next Wednesday. Dr. Wharton of the Pennsylvania '96' team coached the team yesterday and to-day, assisting Dr. Eull. He expressed surprise at Lajayette's showing, and said he thought the Maroon and White had about an even chance against the Tigers. McAvoy, who injuged his ankle early in the week, has recovered and will play to-morrow. Ellicott and Craig, the freshmen who have won the half back positions on the team from two of last year's players, will be taken out after the first half, to save them, for Wednesday's contest in Princeton.

Princeton.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Oct. 7.—Coach Ely of Williams is confident that some of the weaknesses which were manifest in Wednesday's game against the Massachusetts State College team will be absent in the game against Columbia to-morrow. The greatest source of strength to Williams will be the presence of Capt. Watson at right half back. His punting and end runs have always proved of assistance to the team. Bates at full back is still laid un with a sprained ankle. His place will be filled by either Moffat or Judson. Brown at left half is an old player, as is Miller at quarter back. Capt. Marshall and Elder of last year's Exeter team will be at right tackle and left end respectively, while Stocking, who was acting captain in Wednesday's game, will play right end. Murray at left tackle played a strong game last year against Columbia, and is an experienced player. The three centre men. Campbell, Eldred and Eldredge are heavy men, weighing 202, 180 and 200 pounds respectively.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 7.—The Corneil 'varsity took only light practice to-day because of to-morrow's game with Hamilton. It is practically certain now that Coach Warner will start his best eleven in the game. The first substitutions that are likely to take place will be to put Bird in Capt. Lyngh's place at quarter and have Gibson relieve Birmingham, who was ill to-day. To-day's practice was devoted to tackling and running down the field. The work of the eleven showed snap and aggressiveness, which was very encouraging to the coaches. But the team work is as yet disappointing, and there are one or two wofully weak places. Many defects in the line will have to be remedied before the Princeton game, which is now three weeks off.

New York University had its hardest practice of the week yesterday in preparation for its game with Fordham College to-day on Ohio Field. The team will lose the services of one of its most valuable men in to-day's game. Coe's injured shoulder will prevent him from playing for at least two weeks. Mowin, a freshmait, who has been playing a fine game at left half back, threw his shoulder out yesterday and will probably be on the hospital list for a good part of the season. The work yesterday consisted of practising starts, tackling the dummy and a fifteen minute half between the first and second team.

Annapolis, Oct. 7.—The placing of the entire responsibility for the coaching of the midshipmen this season upon Prof. Paul Dashiell has worked very well so far. The candidates for the team feel entire confidence in him and the advantages of the system in greater unanimity of action are beginning to be seen. Other advantages which the Navy has this year are a decidedly heavier lot of candidates for the line and a large number of fast and stocky back men.

It is very easy even at this early date to pick out eight or nine candidates from whom the seven line positions will be filled, but a great deal of experimenting is going on as to what positions they will fill. Capt. Farley may fill his old position at tackle or he may be considered too light and be moved to end. The other tackle candidates are Grady and Piersol, both of whom played in the majority of games last season, but they will also be tried at guard. Chambers, who played guard last season, is now being coached at tackle. The idea seems to be to insure strong tackles at all hazards. Grady and Chambers are the heaviest of the candidates, their weight reaching almost 200 pounds apiece. Others working at guard are Goss. in him and the advantages of the system in apiece. The Navy will start the season with a sterling pair of ends in Whiting and Howard, and if Farley is moved out from tackle, Howard, who is a good punter, will be moved back of the line.
The old back who is most sure of his position this year is Wilcox at quarter, a find of last year, who is a remarkably clear headed man for the position, besides being fast and sure. Another nearly sure man in the backfield is Douglass, a founth class man, who won a great reputation on the team of the University of Tennessee. He is of the heavy plunging type. Another good man among the recruits is Townsend, half last year on the Mercersburg College eleven. The best of the old men for backs are Root, Needham, Strassburger, Reichmuth, Dowell, Decker and Doberty.
